

You are invited to:
The launch of our report
DISABILITY AND ARMED CONFLICT and the inauguration of Giles Duley's
photo exhibition

7 May 2019 at 17:30

Quai Wilson (in front of Hotel President Wilson)

PROGRAMME

- 17:30            Drinks and Violin Performance by Alla Arsheed
- 17:40            Welcome
Marco Sassòli, Director, Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights
- 17:45            Keynote
Michele Bachellet, UN High Commissioner for Human Rights
- 17:50            The Photo Exhibition ‘Disability and Armed Conflict’
Giles Duley, Photographer and CEO of Legacy of War Foundation
- 17:55            Testimonial by Khouloud Al Muaddamiyeh
A Syrian mother and refugee who is quadriplegic as a result of being hit by a stray bullet during the conflict
- 18:05            The Publication ‘Disability and Armed Conflict’
Alice Priddy, Senior Researcher, Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights
- From 18:10    Cocktail Reception and Violin Performance by Alla Arsheed

Please confirm your attendance by 1 May 2019 via email to:
events@geneva-academy.ch

We are grateful to Diakonia, the Legacy of War Foundation, the Republic and State of Geneva, the Centre de Compétence en Accessibilité de l'Association pour le Bien des Aveugles et Malvoyants, the Association Dire pour Voir and Gobet Rutschi for their support in setting up the exhibition. We are also grateful to the Swiss Network for International Studies for its support to our research project on disability and armed conflict.

