

INTEGRATING IHL INTO MILITARY OPERATIONS AND ETHOS: AN ICRC PERSPECTIVE

VILLA MOYNIER (RUE DE LAUSANNE 120B) | GENEVA | TUESDAY 14 MAY 2019 | 18:30 - 20:00

In this Military Briefing, panelists will share insights on the International Committee of the Red Cross' (ICRC) dialogue with arms carriers (state armed forces and armed groups) aimed at enhancing the integration of international humanitarian law (IHL) into doctrine, training, education, sanctions, but also ethos.

In light of the recently published ICRC's Roots of Restraint in War report, they will reflect, with the audience, on how the law can be linked to social norms and values in order to influence the behaviour of soldiers and fighters.
