

VILLA MOYNIER RULES

RULE 1

Discussions during and on the margins of the meeting are strictly confidential. A participant is free to report his/her own comments but may not cite or summarize remarks by any other participant.

RULE 2

The identity of the participants is confidential. An individual participant is free to refer to his/her own participation in the meeting, but may not identify any other participant.

RULE 3

A summary report is prepared by the organizers of the sense of the discussions. A draft is circulated to the participants for comment before being finalized. Once the summary report has been made public it may be freely quoted.